Support our Musicians

Fidalgo Youth Symphony and Mount Baker Youth Symphony, under the nonprofit Northwest Youth Symphony Association (NYSA), serve the youth of Island, Skagit, Whatcom and Snohomish Counties. These symphonies provide an excellent opportunity for musicians aged five to twenty-one to study and perform orchestral music. Students perform four concerts per year in Mount Vernon. We are proud to provide an exciting program where string, woodwind, brass and percussion instrumentalists learn to perform together with great skill and confidence. They are supported by instrument-specific coaching by professional musicians during rehearsals 7-12 times per year. Our three symphony groups (Sinfonette, Junior and Youth) ensure there is a place for musicians of varying degrees of training. New members are welcome throughout the season. Participation in these symphonies creates a positive learning environment where youth can meet new friends, improve musicianship and have fun!

*Your generosity will help young musicians by keeping FYS and MBYS accessible to all.
Your assistance will be recognized in our program for a full year of concerts!*
